EIGHT PAGES—FIVE CENTS

5 Billion Aid Program Approved By Senate

Bill Is Still Same After 13 Days' Debate

by Roger D. Greene
Washington, April 8.—(AP)—A new $5,580,000,000 program to spur European recovery over the next 15 months was approved by the Senate today.

The vote was 70 to 7. In an eleven-hour burst of speed, the Senate wound up 13 days of debate to clear the measure without a single major change from the legislation requested by President Truman.

New Goes To House
The bill now goes to the House, where a similar measure has already been approved by the House foreign affairs committee. Later, the actual measure to tide the 16 Marshall plan nations over until June 30, 1950, will have to be considered by the appropriations committee and voted by both chambers.

The measure the Senate passed today is an "authorization" bill, setting a limit on the fund, but not actually appropriating the money. House administration leaders immediately called the House into an unusual Saturday session at noon tomorrow to speed that chamber's action on the authorization.

The administration's overwhelming victory in the final vote for passage in the Senate surpassed even the most optimistic forecasts of democratic leaders.

Only One Demo Against It
Only one democrat, Senator Elmer of Louisiana, voted against it. Six republicans also voted "no." They were Senators Butler (Nebr.), Capehart (Ind.), Jenner (Ind.), Keen (Mo.), Langer (ND) and Wherry (Nebr.).

Administration forces successfully beat off every attempt to make a major change in the bill, starting with thumping defeats of Republican efforts to slash as much as $2,500,000,000 off the measure. As passed, not a cent was whittled off the amount asked by President Truman.

However, economy-minded senators have made it clear they will seek new cuts when the actual money bill comes up.

Driving at the fastest clip they have set since the debate opened March 23, the lawmakers cleared away 10 amendments in five hours to reach the final vote. They had been warned by administration lieutenants that the Senate would be kept in session all night until the vote was taken.

In the 12 previous days, punctuated by bitter wrangling and Republican cries that the administration was trying to "steamroller" the bill through the chamber, the Senate had acted on only 16 amendments.

Relatives Pass Baby Around, Wish To Find Parents

Chicago, April 8.—(AP)—During the last 10 days, one-year-old Barbara Diane Foster has passed through all her relatives in search of a temporary home.

So police today started a search to locate the girl's parents, Morton and Ellen Foster, both 19, some where in Nashville, Tenn.

Foster and his wife went to their native Nashville where he intended to find a job. They left Barbara with Foster's sister, Ruby and Vivian.

The Foster girls work days, they left Barbara with a sister-in-law, Mrs. Catherine Foster. She wanted to adopt Barbara, but the little girl's parents declined. Barbara then was sent to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Beatrice Allen.

Mrs. Allen, 48, also works days. After caring for Barbara several days, she asked Warren Avenue police to help find the girl's parents.

Mrs. Catherine Foster now has Barbara and police have asked Nashville authorities to help locate the girl's parents.

Names MIT Professor Red Discussion Leader

New York, April 8.—(AP)—A "voluntary worker" for the FBI in the communist party today named a Massachusetts Institute of Technology professor as a discussion leader in a party professional group.

However, the professor, Dirk J. Strick, declared at Cambridge "I am not a communist" but a "Marxist in the broadest sense."

The witness, Herbert A. Philbrick, 33-year-old advertising man, said Strick attended meetings of the professional group in the Boston area and summed up its studies of Lenin's "state and revolution."

He was testifying at the federal court conspiracy trial of 11 leaders of the American communist party. They are accused of conspiring to advocate violent overthrow of the U. S. government.

Philbrick said the professional group was taught it was essential to overturn the U. S. government by force and set up a dictatorship of the workers. Strick asserted he had never advocated overthrow of the government.

The advertising man, who lives at Melrose, Mass., also told the jury about clandestine contacts with government agents to tip them off to party moves and the web of pre-cautions spun to hide his role from party officials and members.

He said the FBI paid all his expenses including his party dues and rental charges on a dictating machine used for his reports. But he asserted he received no pay and did his undercover job voluntarily.

Details about Philbrick's FBI connections came out on cross-examination. He named Strick as a party figure before finishing his direct testimony for the government.

The M.I.T. professor, a mathematician, said Philbrick "put words in my mouth I never said" and asserted "never at any time nor in any form have I ever advocated the overthrow of the government."

"Though I myself have avoided organizational contacts with the communist party, I maintain it is a god-given right of any citizen to join the communist party as well as any other party," Strick said.

Mrs. Norma Wire
To Get Jury Trial
On Vice Charge

Chicago, April 8.—(AP)—Mrs. Norma Wire, 24, the woman with the list of 2,500 good-time Charleses, was granted a jury trial today on a charge of directing persons to houses of prostitution.

Mrs. Wire was seized early Wednesday when police raided a telephone-equipped room on North Clark street which, they said, was the nerve center of a prostitute-broking agency.

Also found in the room were two leather-bound notebooks containing the names and notations about them. Capt. Thomas Harrison said remarks in the books indicated the customer list included several prominent persons. Men from a number of foreign countries also were listed.

There were prices with the names, he said, ranging from $15 to $50. Attorney Max Lurie, representing Mrs. Wire, obtained the jury trial order from Judge Mason S. Sullivan in Municipal court. Mrs. Wire said nothing in court.

Selznick Auctions
Some Of Studio's
Old Equipment

Hollywood, April 8.—(AP)—News that some of David O. Selznick's studio equipment will be auctioned didn't surprise Hollywood today. It has learned to expect anything from the fiercely independent producer.

"Selznick studio goes on block," reported a trade paper. The film maker's top executive, Daniel O'Shea, quickly denied the report. He explained that some of the studio's "absolutely" equipment had been sold to an auctioneer.

O'Shea declared the move was merely a "housecleaning." To be auctioned are outdated costumes, furniture, greenery and lumber for which Selznick pays $30,000 storage space yearly. The producer has no studio; he rents space from RKO.

Reports Wabash
Disputes Settled
By Truman Board

Washington, April 8.—(AP)—A presidential emergency board reported today the settlement by "mutual agreement" of a dispute which led to a work stoppage of employees of the Wabash railroad.

A White House announcement said the board advised President Truman that the work stoppage, which occurred March 21, was ended two days later when the employees agreed to resume service pending determination of the matters in dispute.

"All such issues were on April 4 settled by mutual agreement of the parties," the announcement said.

The board warned against "the hazard of permitting so many alleged grievances to accumulate as was the case in the instant dispute."

It said that if "delay in disposition of grievances by the railroad's adjustment board is a contributing factor to such a condition, it is imperative steps be taken to correct such condition."

Demos Count On Consumer Support Of Farm Program

By Ovid A. Martin
Washington, April 8.—(AP)—The Truman administration counted heavily today on consumer support to put its new farm program through congress.

The two objectives of the program are to stabilize food prices and a stabilized agriculture.

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan and his assistants believe the prospect of a cut in grocery bills will make government farm-aid measures acceptable to many city and town people who have been critical of previous measures.

The program, which Brannan outlined to congress yesterday, calls for a major change in the way the government attempts to assure fair prices to producers of meat, milk, and other dairy products, eggs, poultry, fruits and vegetables.

It would let the market prices of these products drop to whatever levels supply and demand would carry them. If prices failed to give farmers a predetermined return deemed essential to keep them fairly prosperous, the government would make up the difference with a check from the U. S. treasury.

Under the present program, the government does not permit free play of supply and demand. If prices tend to drop below the guaranteed price level, the government buys and removes from the market the price-depressing part of the supply.

However, Brannan would retain the present support method for storable commodities, such as grain, cotton, tobacco, oil seed crops, and wool. These commodities, making up about one-fourth of farmers' income, are largely agricultural raw materials.

Brannan said the present program has proved unpopular with many consumers where it has been necessary to use it. He cited government buying of potatoes and eggs in recent years at an outlay of more than $300,000,000 in government funds.

Aides said criticism directed at the potato and egg purchase operations would be mild compared with public attacks which would come if the government should be required to extend the price-supporting purchases to milk and pork.

They said there is a possibility the government may have to buy and remove from the market considerable quantities of milk and millions of pounds of pork before the end of the year in order to support producers prices.

Coast Guard Plane
Finds Lost Ship
In Indies Harbor

Norfolk, Va., April 8.—(AP)—The Coast Guard said tonight a schooner found at anchor in the British West Indies definitely is the Keewatin, unreported since she sailed from the Bahamas April 1 for Virginia.

A family of four aboard the craft is "alive and safe," the coast guard said. It had learned from a message radiated by the pilot of a rescue amphibian plane. The plane landed beside the Keewatin at Pensacola Key.

The rescue plane's message identified Donald Parrot, of Salem, Mass., his wife and two young sons as the Keewatin's passengers.

A widespread search by planes and surface ships was called off shortly after the plane's message was received.

The plane that reported sighting the Keewatin this afternoon was one of 29 coast guard, navy, air force and marine aircraft that had combed wide areas of the Atlantic in search of the schooner.

Cook Co. Landlords
Will Seek 25%
Increase In Rents

Chicago, April 8.—(AP)—A spokesman for Cook county landlords told a state legislative committee on housing today that an increase of at least 25 per cent in rents will be law.

Robert S. Cushman, attorney for the Cook county fair rent committee, said the increase was needed to put landlords in the same position "dollar wise" that they had in 1942.

He predicted that "overnight" it would go a long way toward alleviating the housing shortage in Chicago.

"The increase is allowed 80,000 single persons in Chicago occupying family size apartments would be forced to move," Cushman said.

"That would throw these apartments onto the market for families now desperate for shelter."

Given 99 Years
For Killing Wife
To Marry Another

Chicago, April 8.—(AP)—Mark Provo, 24, was sentenced to 99 years in prison today for murdering his wife so he could marry another woman.

Judge George M. Fisher of Criminal Court passed sentence after refusing Provo a new trial.

The husband was convicted by a jury March 26 although he contended he shot his wife, Norma, 26, accidentally in their apartment Sept. 28.

The State declared the killing was motivated by Provo's desire to marry Miss Rose Roberts, 39, with whom he had been keeping company for the last two years.

Provo, father of two small boys, told of throwing the death weapon into Lake Michigan and of visiting Miss Roberts, who worked with him in a tailoring house, before notifying police his wife had been shot.

The dead woman's father, Cross, 45, lives in De Soto, Jackson County, Ill.

House Votes Funds To Berlin Airlift

Washington, April 8.—(AP)—The House today voted the money to keep the Berlin airlift going and to pay off construction obligations of the Atomic Energy Commission.

These funds were included in a $771,000,000 deficiency appropriation bill passed by voice vote. It places out appropriations to pay costs of miscellaneous government agencies the rest of this fiscal year ending June 30.

The bill, third big money measure on the House docket this week, now goes to the Senate.

Will Abolish Military Rule Of West Reich

Burma War Flares As Rebels Don't Give Up

By Douglas Lackerstein
Rangoon, Burma, April 8.—(AP)—Burma's civil war flared up with new fury tonight on the approaches to Rangoon after Karen rebels in Insein failed to surrender as scheduled.

For nine hours after the surrender deadline Burmese commanders waited in vain for some word from the Karens. Then government planes and artillery opened up again against the insurgents' lines in Insein, 10 miles north of Rangoon. The fighting ended a three-day cease-fire there.

While the government's attention was directed on Insein, a combined force of Karens and Communists seized Twante, a canal town 16 miles southwest of Rangoon. A Burmese communiqué announced the loss of Twante.

The bulletin said government forces scored a victory 70 miles northwest of Rangoon. In that sector Burmese units and members of the white band of the people's volunteer organization (PVO), fighting in this case on the side of the government, gained control of Henzada. The town is an important rice center on the Irrawaddy river.

The communiqué also reported that 70 civilians were killed in a clash between the PVO and the Communists in the Sagging district near Mandalay. Thirty communists were declared slain in that engagement.

It was announced that Bo Sein Hman, special commissioner of the Tharrawaddy district, was killed by rifle fire from the ground while he was flying to Rangoon. The plane was undamaged and reached its destination with the dead official aboard.

The shots were fired, the government said, by White Band and Communist rebel groups which yesterday occupied the town of Tharrawaddy, 60 miles north of Rangoon. Bo Sein was among six ministers who resigned last week from Premier Thakin Nu's cabinet.

Convict Sam Carr Of Conspiracy In Canadian Red Trial

Ottawa, April 8.—(AP)—Sam Carr, former organizer of Canadian communists, was convicted today of conspiring to provide a forged passport for a Russian agent and was sentenced to six years imprisonment.

His counsel, Joseph Sedgwick, said the jury's verdict would be appealed. Carr, 43, was picked up by U. S. immigration authorities in New York last January and deported to stand trial. This was the 19th case growing out of the sensational 1946 disclosures that a Soviet spy ring had operated in Canada.

The crown contended that Carr conspired with Soviet embassy officials in Ottawa to issue a forged passport for Ignacy Samuel Witezak. Carr denied the accusation. Witezak, a Canadian Pole, was described at the trial as a Russian agent who operated for a time in Los Angeles.

To Build 25-Story
Apartment Bldgs.
On Chicago 'Coast'

Chicago, April 8.—(AP)—Two new 25-story co-operative apartment buildings, to cost a total of $5,670,000, are planned for Chicago's gold coast.

The project was announced today by Robert Hall McCormick and Herbert S. Greenwald, Chicago builders.

The buildings will be identical in outward appearance, with exteriors entirely of steel and glass. One will have 324 three and one-half room apartments. The other will have 92 six-room units. In addition, there will be 25 single rooms and a 100-car garage.

The structures will be located at 850 to 860 Lake Shore drive.

The down payment on a three and one-half room apartment will be $6,500, with monthly charges ranging approximately from $81 to $136 a month, depending on location. Six room units will cost an initial $12,000 with monthly payments of about $145 to $250.

U.S. Seizes Ship
In Texas In Export
Control Crackdown

Washington, April 8.—(AP)—A crackdown against export control violations is in the making, spurred by official suspicion that stepped-up efforts are under way to ship strategic materials to the Soviet bloc.

The tip-off to the new drive against export evasions was the seizure at Houston, Texas, yesterday of a 1,300,000-pound cargo of carbon black. This material gives long-lasting qualities to rubber used for tires or industrial purposes.

Coordinated investigation work by the customs bureau and the commerce department's office of international trade led to the seizure, and officials admitted guardedly today that further clampdowns by these agencies are expected.

The carbon black seized at Houston was valued at $150,000—it is one of the items on a list of goods denied Russia, and officials said its movement was "mysterious."

It was indicated that further investigations are underway now in other parts of the country and that they deal with shipments of other materials. Furthermore, checks are being attempted in Europe and the OTT has stationed an agent in Zurich, Switzerland, to work with state department officers there.

China Reds Moved
By Li's Offer
To Give His Life

Nanking, April 8.—(AP)—Moved by acting President Li Tsung-jen's dramatic offer to lay down his life, the Communists opened a slight hole tonight in their surrender ultimatum to the Chinese government.

This gloomy capital saw some hopes that perhaps more talk, instead of more fighting, might result.

Nationalist military sources, however, predicted the Communists would make at least a token crossing to the south bank of the Yangtze within the next two weeks.

Semi-official Chinese quarters which usually are reliable said the Reds now were demanding that the government satisfactorily state before next Tuesday its final attitude towards Communist peace terms.

These terms amount to outright surrender, but the possibility of negotiation remains.

Only two days earlier the Communists had demanded that the government yield command of its armies by Tuesday under threat of crossing the Yangtze.

4 New Directors
Added To Illinois
Good Roads Assoc.

Springfield, Ill., April 8.—(AP)—Four new directors were added today to the Illinois Good Roads Association, headed by former Ill. Gov. Hugh Cross.

Organized three weeks ago, the association met today and discussed details of a campaign to inform the public of "the great need for an improved highway system" in Illinois.

Elected to the board of directors today were: Virgil E. Gunlock, commissioner of highways and super-highways for Chicago and Cook county; Mayor S. G. Ingraham, Evanston; Taylor E. Spoor, Chicago, executive secretary of the Illinois Road Builders Association; and Milo P. Flickinger, Springfield, executive secretary of the Associated General Contractors of Illinois.

William A. Cutler, executive vice president of the First National bank of Springfield, and J. Stanley Wells, president of the First National Bank of Mattoon, were named to a three-man finance committee. The third member, from Chicago, will be named later, Cross said.

Bank Robber Shot
As He Leaves Bank

Vancouver, B. C., April 8.—(AP)—A bank bandit was shot to death today as he tried to make a getaway using a five-year-old child as a shield.

Police tentatively identified the bandit as Robert Harrison, about 32.

He had fired a volley of shots in a branch of the Canada Bank of Commerce, wounding Manager Charles T. J. Scanlon in the chest and Accountant Arthur R. Pearson in the shoulder.

The bandit dropped a satchel of money as he emerged from the bank, holding the child in front of him and firing wildly down the street. Shoppers dashed for cover.

Motorcycle Policeman Cecil Paul roared up and fired twice. The robber fell to the street dead.

U.S., France, England End Long Wrangle

by John M. Hightower
Washington, April 8.—(AP)—The United States, Britain and France ended their long wrangle over Germany today with a historic decision to abolish military rule of the western zones and retain only limited controls over the proposed new German federal republic.

Military governors will be replaced by civilian high commissioners, though the occupation armies will remain for an indefinite period.

The agreement concluded a momentous week in the history of the cold war and ended the last great split among the western powers on a major international policy question.

Set Goal For Germany
It set a goal for Germany's full fledged return to the family of nations. As a tactical move in the struggle with Russia, this appeared likely to count as a major achievement toward persuading the German people that their best chances for the future lie with the western nations rather than with the Soviet bloc.

Secretary of State Acheson expressed belief that the German agreement and other recent events had provided grounds for increased hope of an eventual settlement with Russia.

He explained his belief this way: there had been a vacuum of weakness in western Europe, but now this vacuum was being filled with strength by reason of the German accord, the progress of European recovery and the development of the North Atlantic defense treaty.

Asked by newsmen whether Russia could join in the German settlement, he said he saw no reason why not, if Russia desired to.

Will Harden Split
Actually, however, it seemed to many experts that the immediate effect is to harden the split between the eastern and western sections of Germany, whatever the long-range effects may be.

It was British Foreign Minister Bevin, holding a hasty news conference at the State Department, who declared that the agreement marked the end of a "most momentous week" in the United States, Britain and France joined with nine smaller nations to sign the North Atlantic defense treaty.

Moreover, there was another major event today—the first disclosure of arrangements between the United States and western European governments for the proposed military assistance program which President Truman intends to present to congress soon.

Eight of the European signers of the Atlantic treaty formally notified the State Department that they would need American arms to strengthen their forces and American dollars to help step up their own military production.

Michigan Student
Guilty In Hit, Run
That Injured Two

Lansing, April 8.—(AP)—Charles G. Marks, Jr., 22, of Waukegan, Ill., today was found guilty of felonious driving in connection with a hit and run accident that crippled a Michigan State college boxer and his pretty girl companion.

Marks was remanded to the Ingham county jail to await sentence. The charge carries a possible penalty of $1,000 fine or two years in state prison or both. Circuit Judge Marvin J. Salmon said he probably would pronounce sentence in a week or 10 days.

Marks, also a student at the college, was found guilty by a jury of six men and six women. Bert Davey, 20, of Detroit, a regular starter with the college boxing team, suffered fractures of both legs in the accident. His "date" for the evening, Norma Jean Towar, 19, of Lansing, sustained leg and rib fractures and internal injuries.

ELECTED PRESIDENT
Chicago, April 8.—(AP)—Frans White, a director of the Columbia Broadcasting System, today was elected president and director of the Mutual Broadcasting System, succeeding Edgar Koback, president the last four years.

DIES TEACHING WIFE TO DRIVE AUTOMOBILE

Los Angeles, April 8.—(AP)—Simon F. Zukor, 49, bought a new automobile and planned to give his wife a driving lesson.

As Zukor walked behind the car last night his wife pushed the starter button. In reverse gear, the car shot back, sheriff's deputies said, and pinned Zukor against a neighbor's house.

He was dead when a doctor arrived.

STATE SHOULD HELP BEAR COST OF FIRE PROTECTION IN JACKSONVILLE

The stark tragedy of the fire at St. Anthony's hospital in Effingham which cost the lives of nearly 80 persons has stunned the nation. Only one hospital fire, that at the Erie clinic in Cleveland on May 15, 1929, was more disastrous in its toll.

There is nothing worse than a hospital fire because so many patients are bedridden. The heroic efforts of the nurses and nurses to rescue the helpless from the flames at St. Anthony's shows how difficult quick evacuation is in such an institution. Many perished in leaps from high floors rather than be burned.

Such terrible disasters point in bold relief to the necessity of constant attention to fire prevention and protection. Even in buildings supposedly fireproof, there should be no relaxation of care. The LaSalle hotel fire in Chicago illustrates that all too clearly.

Jacksonville is the site of a number of institutions, state, charitable and private, where sick and handicapped patients and inmates are cared for. All depend upon the city fire department for protection.

Fortunately, our municipal fire department has been kept efficient and is being improved. A new ladder truck, capable of reaching to the top floor of our highest building, is expected to be delivered here sometime this month. This new equipment was purchased by the city at a cost of $37,000.00 but it will be worth every dollar if it is ever needed to save people from death leaps.

It is an expensive proposition to maintain a good fire department. Every year the taxpayers of Jacksonville spend approximately $50,000 for this necessary protection. They get no help from the State of Illinois, although three state institutions are served, and very little from persons owning property outside of the city limits where fire runs are made for $100 a trip but where otherwise nothing at all is paid for the cost of standby service.

Toward the end of greater fire protection for this community, we recommend that steps be taken to secure from the state a fair share of the fire department cost and that plans be formulated and studied under which properties immediately surrounding the city may bear an equitable portion of this expense also.

A disaster such as that at Effingham knows no boundary lines in the direness of its consequences.

Northminster Society Plans Sunrise Service

Plans for the Easter sunrise service and the evening service on Easter were discussed by the Ladies Aid society of Northminster Presbyterian church at its meeting held Thursday afternoon at the church.

The sunrise service will take place at the church at 8:45 a.m., followed by a breakfast. The youth will have charge of the service. The evening service will also be in charge of a youth group.

Twenty-four members attended the meeting. Mrs. William Bieker led devotions, giving a scripture reading, a reading entitled "The Door of Hope," and a poem, "On Easter Morn," "Never the Cross" and "The Way of the Cross Leads Home" were sung by the group.

Mrs. Carl Day, president, had charge of the business session, during which the quarterly thank offering was taken. Mrs. Day gave the prayer of consecration. The plans for the Easter service were then presented by Mrs. George Corcor and Mrs. C. Frank Janssen. It was announced that the Presbyterial meeting would be held at the Third Presbyterian church in Springfield on April 28, and that the May Fellowship would be held at Northminster on May 26. The session closed with prayer by the Rev. Janssen.

A trio, composed of Mrs. George Corcor, Mrs. Melvin Smith and Mrs. Clyde Vasconcellos, sang "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "Salvator." Mrs. Perry Fernandes gave a short talk on her trip to California.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. L. A. Vasconcellos, chairman, Mrs. Lee Shadid, Mrs. Anderson, Esmer, Mrs. Carrie Smith, Mrs. Lillie Sears and Miss Evelyn Scott.

ROGER THE LODGER

By Elizabeth R. Roberts

TWO STORY. Roger, the problem solver, lives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts in Great Falls, Mont., during the winter months. Roger has taken over the house, wrecked the Roberts' car and made the home the scene of the crime. His latest escapade was to invite a party of 25 from the Silver Club to an after-midnight party at which the house was left in a mess.

XVII

I WAS still frowning a few days later, working my wrinkles deeper into the fertile ground of my brow, when Roger—he had telephoned—called, he said, to ask what I was up to.

"Not a thing," I fell into his trap.

"I've just run into a good deal for you," he said. "Met a chap who's introducing a fine line of cosmetics. He's giving away free facials. I told him I'd ask you if you'd like one."

"What's the use of my bothering with skin foods and such?" I argued. "You know I'm not the type."

There was a suggestion of a pause on Roger's part. Then he intimated—oh, ever so tactfully—that possibly at my age it was a good thing to think a little more about preserving oneself.

Something about the deal sounded so phony that I repeated, "You said it was free, didn't you?"

"Absolutely free."

"Well, send him over."

He wasn't a dapper little Frenchman; he was King Kong himself, built square like a football tackle, with low-growing thick black hair, teeth as large and yellow as an elk's. Sheer terror gripped me; I wondered whether he knew his own strength.

If he got to crasing the wrinkles on my throat, he could erase me, too, and never know he'd done it.

He suggested I sit at a dressing table; he wanted me to watch the treatment in a mirror.

King Kong bound my hair with a towel, plumed another around my shoulders. He applied a generous dose of cleansing cream and wiped it off my face. My cheeks remained as pink as roses. He scrutinized me closely.

"It's lipstick. Indefinite lipstick," I explained. "I got tired of having rouge blow off so I've been using a touch of lipstick. Like cream rouge. You know."

King Kong regarded me thoughtfully before he got down to work. He applied another sort of cream. I'm giving him something to contend with, I thought, glad of it. I believe in a fair fight. I've never seen such hands in my life. Like a bunch of bananas. Now I saw me, now I didn't. Every time his paws passed over my face, I did a total eclipse. But he was gentle. And he didn't scratch. So much creaming must have kept his skin soft.

I gathered from his sorrowful expression that I was in a bad way. He gave me hope, however.

"Skin is made up of tiny overlapping layers like shingles on a roof," he said. "When you rub them every which way with coarse towels..." I glanced down at my best linen.

He opened a jar of cream and held it toward me. "Take a little of this on your finger tips. Rub it into the palms of your hands. When it is well worked up, apply it to your face, beginning at the forehead and rubbing it in with long, gentle strokes."

My strokes were long, if not gentle. I drew my hands from forehead to chin.

"Not No!" he cried. "Check strokes go up in circles toward the ears."

King Kong handed me a batch of tissue. "Now wipe your face and throat carefully." While I wiped, circling half-upward and half-downward so I'd be sure to be right 50 per cent of the time, I saw more jars being opened.

"This is a beauty mask. I believe Madame needs this." Again I detected that note of sorrow.

King Kong was prepared to offer me a bargain. In order to introduce this superior product, his company was willing to sacrifice price right down to the cost basis. He could well me trial-size jars of the entire line for the absurdly low price of $25.

"Twenty-five dollars!" I could buy a lifetime supply for that amount. The dime stores still sold cosmetics. I was their best customer. They'd miss me if I stocked up with $25 worth all at once. In an agony of suspense I tried to decide what was the least amount I could decently buy. Free facial! But I was at that uncertain age (I hoped nobody was certain) when it was time I took steps before it was too late entirely.

King Kong tapped the mask to feel whether it was set. I closed my eyes at the sight of those oversized hands blotting out my face. I'd buy what he suggested. I knew that now.

He removed the mask; deftly touched me with powder base, mascara, rouge, lipstick, face powder.

"Ah, Madame!" he exclaimed. "A Dresden doll, is she not?" Well, a doll anyway.

I was watching for Roger when he arrived home for dinner. "What a transformation!" he exclaimed. "Pretty. My dear, you're ravishing."

I passed up the compliments. "Where did you meet that man?"

Roger colored a little. "We were having a drink in the same bar last night."

"What did he give you to sick him on me?"

This time Roger definitely blushed. "Why uh... he uh..."

"Roger," I said firmly, "get this straight. Slickers don't need a skill to catch me. Don't you ever give my name to another one as long as you live!" I frowned away all the good of my treatment; and I must have looked as stern as I felt, for he never did again. He had other, more subtle ways of taking me.

Rout Nine Bows To Mt. Sterling 18-3; Play Crimsons Today

Paul Stroud's Rout nine, playing without the services of their number one hurler, Paul Stroud, were swamped by Mt. Sterling's diamond representatives 18 to 3, here Friday afternoon.

Errors, which were plentiful around the Rocket infield, contributed greatly to the Mt. Sterling victory. Northrup, Brown county pitcher, limited the local hitters to 4 safeties. Paul Kennedy and Joe Murphy, representing the Rout, batted, collected two hits each to comprise the total Rout slugging for the afternoon. Kennedy batted out a triple, which was the longest blow of the game for either team.

The Rout nine grabbed an early lead, when they pushed a pair of runs across the plate in the initial inning. Mt. Sterling went scoreless for two stanzas, but loosened their hitting muscles in the third and fourth frames and collected three and four markers in each inning.

The local bunch added another run in the third, which wrote final to their scoring for the game.

The incoming outfit's big inning came in the sixth when aided by several Rout errors, they counted six runs. Mt. Sterling chalked up three more scores in their half of the seventh to bring their total to an impressive 18 runs.

The Stroud coached bunch will meet Bob Kraushaar's high school nine on the J.H.S. field at 2 p.m. Saturday (today) afternoon.

The box score:

Rout	25	4	0

Find 17 Colleges Violating NCAA 'Sanity Code'

Savannah, Ga., April 8-(AP)-Seventeen NCAA colleges have been adjudged in "flagrant" violation of the "sanity code" and 25 others are under investigation.

This disclosure was made yesterday by Prof. Clarence P. Houston of Tufts College, chairman of the NCAA constitutional compliance committee.

The "sanity code" was set up to eliminate commercialism in inter-college athletics. It limits the amount of aid, financial and otherwise, that may be given athletes.

Houston did not disclose the names of schools found to be violating the code or of those being studied to determine whether they are complying.

He said those in the first group would be given until July 1 to indicate whether they plan to comply and until September actually to do so. The committee, meeting here, will report with recommendations to the NCAA in January.

Houston explained that no suspension action can be taken before then.

Iowa State Leads AAU Wrestling

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, April 8-(AP)-Iowa State Teachers led the field into the quarter final round of the National AAU wrestling championships here today.

The Teachers had 11 survivors after preliminary rounds this afternoon. The defending champion All-Navy team had 10 and Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, had eight. All four of the Oklahoma A & M representatives who entered, also remained in the running.

Each of the three powerhouse schools had four points. One point is given for falls each fall scored in the preliminary rounds.

Fastest fall of the preliminary rounds was a 21-second job by Keith Young of Iowa Teachers, who tossed Giacomo Moreno of Lafayette, Ind., in the 145 pound class. Young is one of three 1949 National Collegiate champs from Iowa Teachers still in the AAU running.

Three defending champions came through in the matches held at the Coe College fieldhouse. Leo Thompson of Cornell, 136, and Newt Coppel of Nebraska, 145, scored two victories each. Dale Thomas of Marion, Iowa, former Cornell star, remained in the running for a fourth straight title. This time, however, Thomas is wrestling at 191 pounds instead of 175.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, April 8-(AP)-Hogs were steady to 25 cents a hundred pounds today, cattle were steady to 50 cents higher, and lambs generally steady.

Butcher hogs grading good and choice sold between $17 and $20.25, the practical top. A part load received $20.50. Sows made $14.25 to $17.25.

High-medium and good steers were the best available in the day's curtailed loadlot run at $23 to $25.25. Some odd lots of high-good heifers ranging downward to $24.75. Beef cows topped at $20.50, sausage bulls at $22.75, and weaners at $31.

Woolled lambs sold up to $30.50 but high-choice kinds were missing. Ewes peaked at $15.

Receipts on sale included 4,500 hogs, 1,000 cattle, 300 calves, and 500 sheep.

New York Stock Market

New York, April 8-(AP)-Railroad issues tugged the stock market out of an early decline late today.

The reversal in trend was not a full-scale rally but numerous minus signs were replaced with plus. Gains were mainly fractional although in the railway section, where most of the activity concentrated, advances running to more than a point appeared.

Business expanded a bit as demand picked up. Trading, though, was about the slowest for the week with turnover at the rate of around 500,000 shares for the full session.

In front of the forward move were such issues as nickel plate, Northern Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio and Illinois Central.

Others higher included U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, General Motors, Goodyear and Standard Oil (N.Y.).

Corporate bonds moved narrowly. U. S. governments held steady in over-the-counter dealings.

GRAIN PRICES SLUMP; LACK OF INTEREST IS CHIEF FACTOR

Chicago, April 8-(AP)-Grains sank for losses extending to around a cent or more on the board of trade today. Lack of interest was the main factor in the slump, rather than any urgent selling. Trading was light.

Deferred corn futures, which had been strong yesterday, led the early decline. But practically everything joined in the slump before the day was out, demand for cash corn slackened, buyers reducing premiums being offered for the May future.

The administration's new farm program continued as a lively topic for discussion, but its influence on trading was not considered important.

Receipts were: Wheat 10 cars, corn 51, oats 26 and soybeans 3.

Wheat closed 4-11 lower, May $2.16 1/2, corn was 1-11 lower, May $1.31, -11.25, oats were 3-8 lower, May 68 1/2, rye was 1-1 lower, May $1.24 1/2, soybeans were unchanged to 1 lower, May $2.19-$2.19 1/2, and hard was unchanged to 8 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $11.25.

WORSE THAN WAR

Fire killed more people in Boston's Coconut Grove night club disaster than were lost by the American troops invading North Africa.

Illinois College Nine Drops Season's Opener To Concordia Batsmen

Outslugging the Concordia of St. Louis batsmen 12 to 9, Joe Brooks' Illinois College nine still wasn't able to push those necessary counters across the plate when needed, and dropped their lid-lifting 1949 baseball game 11 to 4 on the St. Louis diamond Friday afternoon.

St. Louis runners gained only one earned run off the three Blueboy hurlers, but leaky defensive work on the part of I.C. fielders handed many of the 11 runs to the host club.

Dave Billings started the contest on the hill for the Brooks' coached club, but was touched for 8 runs in the first four innings. Billings gave up the single earned run of the ball game to Concordia, and was backed by general base play on the infield.

Ed Donney relieved Billings in the fifth inning, going out on the hill with an 8-3 handicap. Donney, too, proved wild, walking four men, and allowing three runs to score in two-thirds of that inning.

John Maynard, bell-cow of the Blueboy mound staff, was called in.

Carrollton Track Team To Compete In Alton Meet

Carrollton-The Carrollton High school Hawks track squad, 1949 county and conference champions, make their 1949 debut at the eastern Military academy in Alton on Saturday.

Gale Staples, who set a new district record of 12 ft. 14 inches in the pole vault, is the number one man from last year's squad. Besides his specialty, Gale will also compete in the discus and shot. Jim Hidding, county champion in the low hurdles, will repeat in that event if he is in condition in time for the meet. Jim has been handicapped with a leg injury all spring. He will also be competing in the shot and discus.

Bob Brannan, last year county champion in the 440 for Eldred, is working hard and will try again this year in that event. He will also run in the 220 and on the relay team. Other letter winners include Dale Staples, pole vault and 100 yd dash; Bill Roe, high jump and high hurdles; Dick Mehrhoff, 100 and 220; and Tommy Maberry, Bill right and Dick Pruitt in the freshman relay.

Cardinals Defeat New Orleans 6-2

New Orleans, April 8-(AP)-The St. Louis Cardinals found the New Orleans Pelicans rather soft opposition today and coasted to a 6 to 2 decision.

Some lusty clouting by Enos Slaughter, Marty Marion and Nippy Jones provided Howie Pollet and Ray Yochim with all the runs they needed to subdue the Southern leaguers.

Slaughter drove in two runs with a triple. Marion hit a 360-foot homer with out on in the seventh and Jones closed the attack with a homer in the ninth.

St. Louis (N) . . . 000 030 201-6 8 1
New Orleans (SA) 200 000 000-2 7 1
Pollet, Yochim (8) and Baker, Garagiola; Krasauskas, Blackley (6) and Mathis.

State St. Church Men Decorate The Basement

Paint-flecked hands and faces of 25 or more men of the State Street church as well as the "new look" of the basement suggest to the membership that these men have worked two full weeks to paint the basement and kitchen of the church. The men have put in from seven to midnight each night the past two weeks in order to get the job done.

Headed by Cecil Ford, who served as chairman, the group painted the main basement yellow and blue with a white ceiling. The kitchen has been painted buff and ivory. The old stove in the kitchen have been discarded and plans are under way to secure a new restaurant style electric range. Clyde Fitch has been named chairman of a new committee to contact the men of the church who were unable to work with the group for contributions to this stove fund.

The following men gave from one to eight dollars to this fine piece of work: Cecil Ford, W. F. Bailey, G. C. Richardson, Robert Herr, George Losch, W. O. Randall, Roy Hapke, Gail B. Hanson, Harry Murphy, James L. Bunch, Robert Du Bois, Harry Hammett, Clyde Fitch, Loren Moody, Everett Long, John Hackett, A. A. Otto, R. I. Willard, John Purdy, Daniel E. Kerr, Carl E. Robinson, Lawrence Crawford, Byron Lewis, Gilbert Todd, T. J. Fairburn, Donald McDermott and Lewis N. Raymond.

The following ladies served refreshments to the men during the two weeks work period: Mrs. Gail B. Hanson, Mrs. John Purdy, Mrs. Robert Herr, Mrs. R. I. Willard, Mrs. Harrison King, Mrs. A. A. Otto.

Mrs. Cowan, wife of the injured man, stated that her husband had rested "fairly well" Thursday night.

A helper, employed by Mr. Cowan, was working in a field on the Cowan farm, rural route two, Arenzville, when the tractor he was operating became stuck. Mr. Cowan went to assist and was behind the tractor, adjusting the chain in the rear when the tractor "took hold" and backed up, running over him.

MORGAN TO CALIFORNIA—1849

First of all, something about the man.

By Cecil Tendick

Monday the 9th of Apr. 1849
William Morton, Elijah M. Rees, Willy Kerby and Henry Baldwin started for California in the Illinois, Morgan City, and California Rangers (a group of companies which assembled at Jacksonville.) Rained nearly all day. Camped in the town of Jacksonville.

Tues 10 — Warm and pleasant. Drove 14 miles. Camped under a Large Oak. Road very muddy.

Wed 11 — Clear warm and pleasant. Drove 6 miles to Meridiosa and camped.

So begins the journal of an eventful trip that required 10 months to reach San Francisco, more than a year to reach "the diggings."

Before we go much farther, perhaps we'd better learn something about the man, Elijah M. Rees.

E. M. Rees
(Date of photograph unknown)

"Elijah M. Rees was born Feb. 23, 1817 in Clark county, Ky. His father was born in Pennsylvania near Philadelphia. His mother was born in Virginia near Richmond. His parents moved to Madison county in the year 1817, and settled on the dividing ridge between the streams called Red Lake Hayes Fork and Muddy Creeks.

"He received a small education, as much as to spell, read, write and cipher a little. He was brought up to his labor in the farm."

So begins the one page autobiography written by Mr. Rees. Four subsequent pages have been torn out of the well preserved diary. Why? Your guess is as good as anybody's and maybe better. Men, now old, who knew energetic "Uncle Milt" said "He always suffered from an overdose of modesty and got worse as he got older." Perhaps he thought future readers might consider his exploits and achievements as on the bragging side. Anyway, the pages are gone.

A Volunteer

In the Indian Wars
The account continues:

"In the year 1837 volunteers were called for to protect the Western line of the United States. He was the only man in the company that he mastered in that volunteered. Their services out of 120 men. There was one company of volunteers made up in Madison and they elected William Jenkins as their Capt. on the 15th day of August. I was to rendezvous at Frankfort on a good horse, saddle, bridle and two blankets. Belt, Tomahawk, butcher knife, canteen, haversack, nap sack and clothing to last six months.

Tomorrow — Life in Caddo Parish.

"On the day before they were to start from home I received Orders not to start, but to hold myself ready at a minute's notice. On the 27th day of Sept. the Company was paraded in the Race field near Richmond and discharged for which private received 61 Dollars, 37 1/2 Cts. in Silver. The officers in proportion were paid.

"In the year 1838 he was Elected Lieutenant in the Company that he mustered. In the same year he appointed Militia fee bill Collector. Also appointed D.S. Sheriff under Jas. Delamott.

Traveled in 1839:
Settled in Louisiana.

"In 1839 he Left and Traveled through the States of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, then to the Republic of Texas where he remained until the year 1842. Then went to the State of Louisiana, Caddo Parish, and went to Overseeing for . . ."

That ends the autobiography. For more about the man we'll pick up a biography printed in a "History of Morgan County" published in 1878. It has a few errors in it, which was the usual thing for those hastily prepared subscription "histories" which were so popular 60 to 80 years ago.

Rees, E. M., farmer and stock raiser, P. O. Franklin, the subject of this sketch, one of the most enterprising citizens of Illinois, was born in Virginia where his parents settled nearly a century ago; emigrating from Wales in 1793. The Rees family floated down the Ohio River to what is now Kentucky; then known as West Virginia. On the passage down they narrowly escaped destruction by the Indians; they settled in Kentucky during the spring of the year, there the subject of this sketch was born Feb. 23, 1817.

"In 1838 he moved to Illinois and for a time he settled down to a quiet life, but his restless disposition could not long confine him to one spot, and the following year found him overseeing a sugar and cotton plantation in the South, and accumulated a nice fortune; returned to Morgan county in 1847; purchased part of the farm where he now resides.

"In 1849 he joined a party of gold hunters, leaving Jacksonville on the 10th of April. At the end of nine months he reached San Francisco, then a city of tents with here and there an old ancient Spanish adobe house.

First a Drayman;
Then a Miner

"On first arriving Mr. Rees became a drayman and subsequently became a miner, staking out innumerable claims, at times meeting with good success. For nearly ten years he roughed it in the mines of California. Unlike the majority he returned from there with a goodly amount of the shining metal.

The year 1859 found him again a resident of Morgan county. On the 13th of November of this year he married Miss Julia Shaw of Ohio.

"Mr. Rees has in all probability today the finest farm property in the State for its size. It now comprises nearly 450 acres. Twenty acres of this is planted with trees, making a beautiful grove, which, in addition to the handsome residence, is pointed out to strangers and tourists.

"For the benefit conferred on posterity Mr. Rees will be remembered long after the soul has taken its flight. Thus by reading the life story of the subject of this sketch, we realize how truly the hand of the diligent maketh rich."

Tomorrow — Life in Caddo Parish.
